GRATITUDE & MIRACLES By MARCELLA VONN HARTING

The dictionary defines Miracle as an extraordinary occurrence that surpasses all known human powers or natural forces and is ascribed to a divine or supernatural cause, especially to God.
(Random House Webster's College Dictionary.) I experience Miracles daily in my life.

“When something small and meaningless happens, it is protecting something big that is being born,” says Caroline Myss. We are connected to all life.
Every choice we make and every belief we hold exerts influence on the whole of life. I believe and expect Miracles in my life.

Last Tuesday I experienced first hand my son's miracle; “a second chance at life”. Having complained of stomach pain since Saturday, he requested to be taken to the Doctor engaging us in a life and death journey.
My son's appendix had actually ruptured on Sunday. Being a top-notch athlete at the Bollettieri Tennis

Academy in Bradenton, Florida his body is in a peak state, which masked the symptoms we were looking for to confirm the need for surgery. Dr.
McSwain, a 30-year surgeon (graduated #1 in his class at Vanderbilt), shared with me that in all his surgeries he has never experienced operating on someone with such developed abdominal muscles which kept the poison contain and masked the symptoms of a ruptured appendix. His healthy body and life style is why he is alive today!

Now, why am I sharing this with you? Because there are times in life when we have no control.
It is how we have lived our lives on a daily basis which creates a strong foundation to stand on when things happen. My son is conscious of what goes into his body daily and how what he consumes affects his performance. A consumer of whole live foods, in time, and the best supplements in the world, Young Living Essential Oils', set a foundation of health and self responsibility taught by my husband and I and the founders of Young Living.

You have a great opportunity before you to get involved in creating a solid foundation for yourself both in health and wealth. I am in gratitude that I live in a world where we can consciously think of how to make our lives better.
Take ACTION today in creating your foundation with the aid of Young Living Essential Oils. I'm blessed with my son's Miracle and how every day I can be a part of Miracles in people's lives by sharing Young Living Essentials Oils.

In Gratitude of Life,
Marcella Vonn Harting

Chronobiotic™ News By G.I. "Atom" Bergstrom

Ylang Ylang oil is so good they named it twice. The ylang ylang tree makes lousy lumber but exceptional essential oil. The oil has even been used as a substitute for the drug quinine.

Qualified health professionals use ylang ylang oil to drop blood pressure and relieve spasms. Because it not only relieves tonic spasms, but also clonic ones, yogis use it to regulate the pulsating cramps known as "kundalini." Ylang ylang oil's seven-carbon esters also influence the seven barometric pressure vortices known as "chakras." However, yogis and circadian technicians know WHEN to use ylang ylang.

The ylang ylang tree grows as much as 80 feet in height, so it is obviously a Zone One food. It is commonly used as a commercial food additive in a multitude of refined foods, from cola and rum drinks to chewing gum. Unfortunately, ylang ylang oil is added indiscriminately to commercial foods with no regard to TIMING.

Ylang ylang oil is used to help maintain normal blood pressure (100 over 60 is a truly healthy person!) It does this by regulating lung pressure via potassium thiocyanate, which is a constituent of TIME-CONTROLLED HUMAN SALIVA. Ylang ylang oil's flavor, odor or magnetism help activate this organic cyanide, notably during Spleen-Pancreas Time, 9-11 am. To be continued.

Testimonial for A · R · T

Well, I have to share with you that I've been using this long awaited skin care line, A.R.T, for about 10 days and I can see a major difference in the shrinking of my pores (my skin looks softer), and the lines around my eyes and, my favorite, the lines around my mouth!! I am so elated! I took some pictures so I can share them with my downline.

Happy Youthful Skin, Sheryl Jai, Alameda, CA

Editors Note: Before you start the A.R.T (Age Refining Technology) Program it is a good idea to take several close-up photographs. The changes can be quite dramatic and you will definitely want to have before and after photos.

FORMALDEHYDE

As of 2004, the World Health Organization upgraded formaldehyde from a "probable human carcinogen" to a "human carcinogen." It is a ubiquitous food additive (and is also in cheap perfumes and inferior essential oils).

If a person is exposed to formaldehyde, cottage cheese is a no-no. Formaldehyde is used in industry to harden casein into imitation jade, lapis lazuli, and tortoise shell, as well as plastics for buttons and hair brush backs.

To Your Pets' Health By Dr. Nancy Brandt DVM, CVA, CAC

Gaining Emotional Balance

The emotions you experience within your own body have energetic signatures or frequencies. These frequencies can influence those around you, including your pets.

Think about a person who enters the room and the whole room lights up. Think of a person who walks into a room and a dark cloud descends on everyone in the room.

Our pets rush the door to greet us full of unconditional love. We then download our energetic patterns of the day to them. Remember the car that cut you off? Animals are very grounded and can take these charges on and release them into the earth. Today, the excess charges in the air are more than they can handle.

Help our pets discharge into the earth and clear better with the following:

1. Have them walk in nature; grass, dirt, any natural outdoor area. 2. Feed a natural raw or lightly cooked diet specific to your pets needs. 3. Use oils to discharge emotional charges: Lavender-balances the energy between you and your pet. White Angelica-protects your pet against negative energy patterns. Rosemary- uplifting and stimulating to help animals with depression. Idaho Balsam Fir-claiming for hyperactivity especially in dogs with chronic pain. Vetiver-grounding for animals that seem to have wings instead of legs. Valor-to help animal with fear. Joy-to help animals protect their heart. Harmony-to bring peace to the home. Grounding-to anchor back to the earth. 4.

"Our pets rush the door to greet us full of unconditional love."

Clean the liver because the liver anchors the emotions and holds those patterns in our life. Cleansing a liver is not just removing physical garbage, it also removes emotional patterns. If your pet is truly unruly it may be a toxic liver. Using products and food which will protect and cleanse the liver will help our pets cope in this world. Use products such as JuvaPower, ComforTone®, JuvaFlex, Forgiveness, Release, DiTone, enzymes and Berry Young Juice.

Call for a consultation with me to specialize a program for each of your pets and for dosing and cautions. Never start a program with your pet without consulting a licensed veterinarian trained in the use of the product you wish to use.

Dr. Nancy Brandt can be reached at 2591 Windmill Parkway, Suite 2, Henderson, NV, 89014. Phone for a consultation: 702-617-3285.
